DPW Contract Review

Ms. Vinchesi informed Board members that all outstanding issues with the DPW union had been resolved and that the DPW union had ratified a tentative agreement. She reviewed with members the provisions on the new four year contract which included a new wage scale for DPW employees along with the new policies of Light Duty, Drug and Alcohol, Progressive Discipline, Commercial Drivers and Vehicle Use. The contract also ceased the practice of allowing employees to earn overtime if they have been out sick that same week. New employees as of July 1, 2017 would not be entitled to overtime in any week in which they were sick or on vacation but would remain eligible for overtime over eight hours in a single day. Selectman Harris thanked Ms. Vinchesi for resolving the differences between the parties.

The Board voted to adjourn the Executive Session at 9:48 p.m. and reconvene in open session.
