

SNOWPLOW ART PROJECT

LET'S HAVE A COLORFUL
WINTER!

CALLING ALL CREATIVE KIDS!

The Town of Scituate and the Scituate Harbor Cultural District announce a pilot program for young artists to paint winter murals on Town snow plows thanks to a grant by the Scituate Cultural Council.

GET TOGETHER WITH YOUR ...

 FRIENDS

 NEIGHBORS

 FAMILY

TEAM

 GIRL SCOUT TROOP

BOY SCOUT TROOP

CLUB

Four winning designs will be selected from a panel of jurors and the winners will have a chance to display their art throughout the community this winter.

DETAILS:

DPW will provide paints in standard paint colors and brushes (donations of brushes are welcome).

Size: 2 plows are 11 feet long and 4 feet tall, 2 plows are 11 feet long and 6 feet tall.

Painting will take place at the Highway Barn, 68 Captain Peirce Rd after school the week of October 17, 2016 from 4:00—6:30 P.M.

We hope to have parent volunteers help oversee the project along with Town workers.

HOW TO ENTER:

Create your design on a poster board size 22 x 28. Include your name(s), contact person's name, telephone, and email. Group submissions are encouraged.

Deadline: Submit by October 6, 2016 by 4:00 P.M.

Drop off at Town Hall, Town Administrator's Office with name and contact info.

Winning submissions will be notified by October 10th.

For any additional questions, please contact Michele Seghezzi, mseghezzi@scituatema.gov or call 781-545-8741.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO YOUR ENTRIES!